In order for the response rate to be accurate in the final report, you should edit the number of participants if you notice a discrepancy between the number of people enrolled in PRISM and the number of course participants in Class Climate.

1. To edit that number, click Display Surveys on the left menu.

2. Click the name of the course that you want to edit.

3. Enter the new number of participants and click Accept.